On behalf of Redemption City Church, thank you for participating in the "Increase Your Peace & Joy Challenge!" This challenge featured a 6-week portion of our Ephesian Series that centered on topics like marriage, family, parenting, life purpose, career paths, thriving in the workplace, and so much more. Our Ephesians Series continues with three final sermons. If you would like to stick with us, we'd love to have you!

Simply text 503-868-6705 and say,
"I want to finish strong!"

HERE ARE THE FINAL THREE SERMONS:

PART 35 | Readying for Battle in The Christian War
Segment A- (God's Strength & Might)

PART 36 | Readying for Battle in The Christian War
Segment B- (Get Armored Up!)

PART 37 | Our Destiny: Standing Victorious With a Love Incorruptible

May 23rd, 2021

THE INCREASE YOUR PEACE & JOY CHALLENGE Week #6

Redemption City Church Proudly Presents:

The Ephesians Series

Moving From ~~Our Story~~ Into God's Story

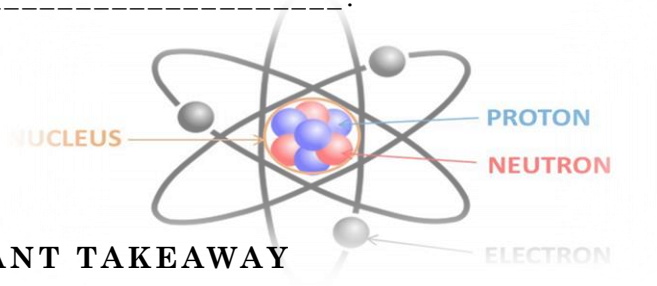
Part 34: The Atoms, The Universe, and Submission in The Workplace...And How It All Counts

Ephesians 6:3-4 | Exhorter: Pastor Brandon K. Rachal

"Our Prayerful Aim Is That Each Person Would Have A Living Encounter with The God of The Universe; Through the Book of Ephesians, Like They've Never Had

AN IMPORTANT TAKEAWAY

God in love, created the world with rules, order, and structure involving _____ in our relationships. While the submission and authority principles apply within the sphere of your marriage, family, and parenting, they don't _____there. Instead, submission to authority comes with you when you _____. They apply in your church, in your workplace, and even in the very fabric of creation. When done according to God's design they are _____.



AN IMPORTANT TAKEAWAY

Even though we often feel defeated and discounted in moments of our life and relationships, we are _____beyond expectation to live incredibly purposeful and satisfying lives. We serve the God who does gigantic miracles when necessary...while staying _____ to do the smallest of surgical work in our hearts daily. And all of it is for the purpose of redeeming our lives and design to its original intended _____. Therefore, no matter how big or small our situation is..._____ to God.

SO, WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR US?

Because we've made the decision as Christ followers to tap out...look up and link in—we are not enslaved to a life that is centered on our _____. Because of our new identity in Christ, we are called towards new activities that not only change how we do life at home in our marriages, families, and parenting; but in the _____. In everything we do, we are ambassadors of God's kingdom work. Therefore, we are _____of equality, fairness, love, compassion, and hard work; it all counts.

AN IMPORTANT TAKEAWAY

We are people called to _____ over us in the workplace with a sincere, hardworking, joyful, trustworthy heart; _____of their qualifications, personality, or personal integrity. We do this as imitators of Christ; gladly joining Him as we live for righteousness to be established _____ not on earth. We submit to the reality that _____is the Lords' and not _____. Masters/employers/leaders are to join in this journey of _____ in how they equally treat their bondservants/employees well; with dignity, respect and value. Both bondservant and master do what they do God with in the _____as they glorify Him.

CONSIDER THESE QUESTIONS

1. How many of you want to see people _____and _____ love with Jesus?

2. How many of you see your life as being a _____ and _____ part of that process?

3. Despite your insufficiencies and insecurities—>>how many of you are waking up saying, "God's redemption plan for the world—that's on me?"

   _____

4. Are you a _____ or are you a _____ in the workplace?

5. Are you a _____ or a major _____ at the workplace to your employer?

6. Do you see your _____ on earth as impacting and having _____ in heaven?