

3RD PRIVILEGED POSITIONAL TAKEAWAY.

We as the people of God need to be radically sensitive to the fact that God often provides UNEXPECTED BREAKTHROUGHS for _____.

He makes himself known amongst thieves, filthy, and immoral people to show that He came to save _____.

This does not mean we must have the most grotesque story and testimony to experience the presence of God. But rather, it is indicative of the reality that even on our best day we already are those _____. Therefore, God uses us...an unexpected...gentile...sin-filled people to demonstrate His great love and grace across the universe.

Redemption City Church Proudly Presents:

CHRIST IN BETHLEHEM

And Our Privileged Position for UnExpected Breakthrough

Luke 2:8-14 - A Message By: Pastor Brandon

3 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

1. How _____ been in your Christmas season? _____

2. How _____ will He be on Christmas Day? _____

3. Are you eagerly anticipating _____ ?

1ST PRIVILEGED POSITIONAL TAKEAWAY.

We as the people of God need to be radically sensitive to the fact that God often provides UNEXPECTED BREAKTHROUGHS at unexpected _____ within our lives. We are to be faithful day by day with what we can see and control; yet joyfully available for God to do major _____.

2ND PRIVILEGED POSITIONAL TAKEAWAY.

We as the people of God need to be radically sensitive to the fact that God often provides UNEXPECTED BREAKTHROUGHS at _____ within our lives. Often in places that may seem _____, is where God does His best work. While He is capable and known for meeting us in churches, bible studies, and prayer groups...it's often in the _____ where true breakthrough and transformation occur. Furthermore, He often shows up in places where we have resisted His way with the hope of freeing us from our bondage to _____.

